APRIL 12-14 2019

WELCOME TO CULLULLERAINE MUSIC FESTIVAL 2019

Welcome all to Cullulleraine Music Festival 2019 and thank you for making the effort to join us here and support this event now in its 5th year.

What better way to enjoy a festival than in this unique location that is Lake Cullulleraine, the place I spent many weekend hours as a child with my parents, playing cricket, tennis, football, or just escaping the heat of summer by swimming in the lake, some lasting memories of my childhood.

A generation later camping here with my own wife and children for school holidays with friends, making new friends, and creating great memories amongst our extended group.

This festival is a lifelong journey for me and with the event here at the Lake Cullulleraine each year I get to make and share some lasting memories with friends old and new, musical or not and to share them with you our guests and visitors to this special place which is Cullulleraine.

I would like to thank all of the members of our small committee who share a vision for this event and work all year to get this event up and running, not an easy task in a slightly remote location and over three days.

We are very lucky with the amazing support of our sponsors and volunteers and I thank them for their vital assistance.

I also wish to thank all of the amazing artists and musicians who underpin this awesome event with their incredible individual and collective talent, a gift to us all. Many of the performers are people I have met over the many years attending music festivals, so I feel events like this little festival are crucial to the health and wellbeing of the real Australian music industry and participants. Enjoy the festival.

& Artistic Director

A WORD FROM OUR CHAIR

I am delighted, on behalf of our great committee to thank and welcome you to the 2019 Cullulleraine Music Festival. With sunny days forecast, this Festival is set to be a delight with a program aimed at everyone.

Last year Musical Artistic Director Chris Rogers delivered a great lineup, the bands were all brilliant and the rich mix of other activities created a fabulous, astonishing Festival, no matter what mother nature determined to throw at us...

This year we've mixed the iconic, Mark Seymour, Broderick Smith, Bushfire with the marvellous Sal Kimber and the Rollin' Wheel and a three-day program of live music, the amazing Pitts Family Circus with drumming, singing and artistic workshops to provide an exciting community centred Festival.

Our committee, a team with many talents, has worked quite tirelessly to organise and deliver this mix of music, activity, food and culture and we thank them greatly.

Immerse yourselves with a range of foods, drinks and wares. Relax and take it all in, be glass free, green with your goods and smoke free within our precinct.

We thank the Mildura Rural City Council and all our Sponsors. They have allowed us to shape this event, here at Lake Cullulleraine within the wonderful Lake Cullulleraine Holiday Park.

We hope you enjoy this Festival and above all we hope you have the pleasure of being here, sharing culture, sharing country, sharing...

I acknowledge the First Peoples of the Millewa Mallee, the Ngintait, Nyeri Nyeri, Werigia & Latjie Latjie, on whose lands we gather and their across river neighbours the Maraura and Barkindji; we acknowledge their Elders past and present and celebrate the heritage of a land connected to people now and for millennia.

ARTISTS / PERFORMERS

BLUGURU

A twisted tale of Indian, Blues, Celtic, Swing, Jazz, Bluegrass, and adventure.

All bets are off when it comes to what will happen at each show, with the genre and instrumentation changing from one song to the next, but you can expect soaring vocal harmonies, blistering guitar and fiddle, and then 'instrument guest appearances' by such as sitar, tabla, tenor banjo, didgeridoo, assorted percussion and of course triple Mandolin!

BRODERICK SMITH

After 5 decades on the Australian music stage Brod has a long list of credits to his name, including fronting Carson, Broderick Smith's Big Combo and ARIA Hall of Fame inductees The Dingoes. He has since released 10 records under his own name. He is considered to be a legend by his legion of fans, a consummate performer by many of his contemporaries and an elder statesman by the new guard of fellow musicians.

Broderick releases his brand-new album and first book, both titled Man Out of Time, and will be joined on stage by special guest Richard Tankard on keyboards and backing vocals.

BUSHFIRE

In 1994, the 'BUSHFIRE' Band was formed in Mildura, home to most of its members, where Steve Curran and his wife Jo joined forces with the Harris, Rogers, Stewart and Tucker families (and many more) to share their love for playing music together. With original folk songs and Irish jigs and reels, the 'Bushfire' band is sure to create a lively and upbeat experience for everyone to enjoy.

With a mix of Irish/Australian and English old time dances with a twist, get ready to swing along the old woodshed floor, feel excitement in the hall, choose a partner and meet and greet on the dance floor!

CAT & CLINT

An Old Timey Duo featuring sweet vocal harmonies, 5-string banjo, fiddle, dulcimer and banjo ukulele. They are inspired and driven by the spirit of Traditional Appalachian Mountain Music and the passing down of fiddle tunes and ballads through generations. The duo play regularly in Bars, Festivals, Woodchops, Markets, Shindigs, Hootenannys and have busked all around. They mix up their repertoire with Clints original songs and a good dose of vintage country blues.

JOHN O'SHAUGHNESSY & HEATHER HUMPHREYS

John writes songs to make sense of his world, leaving space to allow his audience to enter and explore their own stories. John has a collection of song writing awards and finalist listings in competitions across Australia. He's worked in a variety of musical combinations and supported African band Osabisa, the Cockroaches before they became the Wiggles, Irish folk legend Andy Irvine and more recently Fred Smith. He was a member of the band Bushfire, helping them gain the inaugural Bushwacker Award at the Tamworth Country Music festival. John's engaging vocals and fingerstyle guitar are enriched by the vocals of his partner Heather Humphreys.

LED JELLY

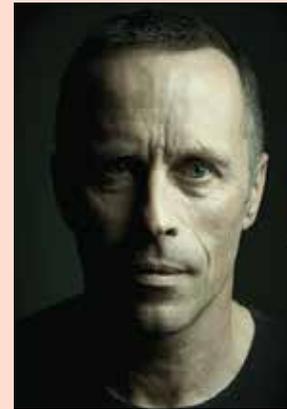

Led Jelly were an acapella staple in Victoria from 1994 to 2006. After a brief performance lull they are regrouping here in 2019 to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the first Led Jelly performance. Career highlights include the Melbourne Acapella Festival, the Boite, the Maldon Folk Festival, the Port Fairy Folk Festival, and concerts featuring local musicians at the old Methodist Church in Mildura.

Heather Crawley, Heather Humphreys, Jacqui Pasquale, Sandi Smith, Joyce Adolph, Carol Aylward, Hilary Thiele, Kerrie Banks, Deb Banks and Brenda Hornsby and more have travelled from all across Australia for this special reunion.

MASHAIDI WA YESU CHOIR

The Mashaidi Wa Yesu Choir from the Mildura Burundian community sing and present a range of songs. Forming 4.5 years ago the 16 member strong choir's songs aim to empower, encourage and strengthen people who can hear and understand the words, singing in 3 languages: Kirundi, Swahili and English. They aim to spread good news through gospel songs and dance encouraging happiness and showcasing their culture. Their songs are a voice to be able to speak their feelings through music.

MARK SEYMOUR ACOUSTIC SOLO

After performing sold-out shows around Australia in 2018, Cullulleraine Music Festival is thrilled to have Mark Seymour performing at the festival in 2019.

Experience an intimate solo performance filled with emotive storytelling, fine acoustic guitar playing and Marks signature strong vocals.

Mark will delight audiences as he performs countless hits and classic songs from both Hunters & Collectors and his solo works in his celebrated 30+ year career as one of Australia's premiersinger-songwriters.

As the frontman for one of Australia's most seminal bands, the mighty Hunters & Collectors, Mark Seymour is one of Australia's most gifted and respected musicians. He delivered rock classics that immediately etched their way into our national consciousness, including 'Holy Grail', 'Throw Your Arms Around Me', 'When The River Runs Dry', 'Do You See What I See?', 'Say Goodbye' and many, many more.

MILDURA DISTRICT ORCHESTRA

Mildura orchestra is comprised of a collection of people from all professions with a mix of ages and backgrounds who all share a passion for playing music. They enjoy bringing a touch of classical and new music to their performances. There is a synergy when they play together; combining strings, woodwind, brass and percussion.

OLD DOGS, NEW TRICKS

Two ole' local boys with a hankerin' for gutsy Blues. Played on home made Cigar Box Guitars (Solid Bods also) Terry 'Tecka' Iredale and B/J Boom, Boom Hunter have been doin' this Blues Duo for a couple of years now. We love 'The Blues' and we hope you do too. Best of Blues to ya's. B/J & Teck.

WITH ONE VOICE CHOIR

The With One Voice Mildura choir launched in October 2018. There are more than 20 With One Voice choirs across Australia, With One Voice choirs aim to reduce social isolation and grow inclusive and supportive communities through singing together.

WOV Mildura was the first regional/rural WOV choir to launch in Australia and has grown rapidly to a membership of over 50 people of all ages and abilities. Our dedicated choir welcomes everyone, and is conducted by Catherine Threlfall.

SAL KIMBER AND THE ROLIN' WHEEL

Hailing from the small, Victorian township of Tallangatta, Sal Kimber grew up surrounded by the beauty and space that today permeates her music. It's country music, but not quite - it's infused with soul and there are elements of pop in there too, but mostly it's real Australian music telling real stories. Backed these days by crack band The Rollin' Wheel, Kimber's songwriting is strong and assured, evidenced by a number of awards and countless accolades. And where it all comes to glorious life of course, is on stage, the live setting where Kimber and The Wheel are truly at home, bringing these songs to life in front of the very people - hardworking, honest, you and me - they're writing about. Kimber & The Rollin' Wheel on stage are a sight indeed, a joyous celebration, fluid and tight and yet also loose and free.

SUNNY STREET SINGERS

"Brighten your day and step into the world of the Sunny Street Singers as we perform inspiring and heartfelt original songs and classic covers in our unrivalled joyous way.

SUNRAYSIA COMMUNITY CHOIR

A group of talented locals who get together each week to sing, they've participated in many community events - most recently as the backing choir for the Victorian Opera's production of 'The Pied Piper' as well as performing at many other events and celebrations. The choir leader Mavis Francis and pianist Meg Sullivan are the heart of the choir, and the 60 or more members are the soul. They are from all walks of life, and all different singing genres, but what they all have in common is that they love to sing.

TED TREVASKIS

Ted Trevaskis is from Mildura and has been a singer/guitarist/songwriter for over 50 years, having been a solo artist as well as playing in numerous bands. With two Cd's and several cassette recordings over the years featuring many original songs as well as covers of mainly country and rock genre, Ted has now turned his talent to a new direction. Over the past 15 or so years building guitars and other musical instruments and to date completed nearly 40 instruments, mainly guitars and cigar box guitars. Some of his instruments will be on display at the Cullulleraine festival. Ted also has a facebook site "Ted Trevaskis Fine Handmade Guitars".

THE BLUESBERRIES

This Mildura band is made up of Ian McDonald (bass, vocals), Ian Smythe (guitar, vocals, harmonica, slide) and Neil Thomson (drums, vocals). The Bluesberries draw their musical influences to artists including the Rolling Stones, Johnny Cash and Neil Young.

THE COULDRON

A well-travelled Mildura based folk trio, having played in the U.K. for the past two years including the well-known Whitby Folk Festival as well as various folk clubs and sessions throughout the UK and Ireland. The Cauldron are also popular and familiar figures on many local folk music stages.

Their primary interest is in traditional music; however, their versatility sees them playing music from other genres, ranging from the familiar to the obscure. They hold the music they play in high regard and their instrumentation and contrasting vocals guarantee that an interesting and entertaining brew will be served up. Instruments include harp, concertina, guitar, harmonica and whistle.

CHERRY PICKERS

The Cherry Pickers' are a contemporary bluegrass band playing your favourite tunes from today and back in the day. Always on the search to "uncover" some hidden bluegrass in any song, their tasty arrangements are reverent to Bluegrass tradition such that they defy any hillbilly stigma. Coupled with their love of traditional tunes and their original songs, the Cherry Pickers make for an exciting and refreshing bluegrass experience.

THE PITTS FAMILY CIRCUS

Not a musical act but a truly enchanting one none the less.

The Pitts Family Circus originated in 2002 with the meeting of veteran circus performers Gareth Bjaaland and Bronte Webster, the began performing as "The Pitts" The now legendary duo Cessil and Sandy Pitt, This show was quite successful and toured many times throughout Europe, Asia and Australia.

Their show is made up of skillful acrobatics, dexterous juggling, marvelous music, high trapeze, surprising stunts and of course humour, because they love to laugh at life.

THE SHARED AFFAIR

Three close friends, Chris Rogers (vocals, dobro, mandolin, guitar, banjo, mandola, octave mandolin), Dave Harris (vocals, double bass, guitar) and Melissa Tucker (fiddle, vocals), have shared a musical journey together over many years, making each other's musical lives both a challenge and a joy.

Drawing on widely varying genres and leaning toward acoustic instruments they are influenced by their remote rural location, and inspired musically by anything real and with Jesse Curran returning to the region join them for Cullulleraine Festival, the quartet is looking forward to a harmony filled set of interesting and diverse songs.

THE STRING CONTINGENT

This renowned acoustic chamber-folk trio have a unique sound that confidently walks the line between folk, classical, jazz, and bluegrass. In 2018, Australians Chris Stone (violin) and Holly Downes (double bass) with Scotsman Graham McLeod (guitar) took a road less travelled along the Savannah Way from Cairns to Broome to deepen their experience of Australia and form the basis of their 6th album, From Here or Somewhere Else. - capturing some of the landscape, isolation, history, beauty and peacefulness of the places they visited. Chris and Holly will be launching the album with special guest Rachel Johnston, who was a member of the Australian String Quartet for seven years and has become one of Australia's best-known and most versatile cellists.

THE TUMBLERS

After performing solo with his trusty Maton 808 for several years singer songwriter Cornell Davitt chance meeting with guitarist Andy Castle, and Cornell's wicked desire to plug in his old Telecaster guitar, led to the formation of The Tumblers. Filling out the rhythm section, Greg Sylvia on Drums and Pete Fisher on bass, The Tumblers mine a seam of blues and country influences

TINY FEET

Tiny Feet comprises of local singer/songwriter Stephanie Rogers, and talented guitarist from the South Coast of NSW, Ben Bamborough. Their studies at Southern Cross University paved the way for them to form an acoustic duo that writes catchy, funky and soulful original tunes.

The duo have graced stages all over the east coast of Australia, the UK and Europe and have been apart of some exciting events such as; Woodford Folk Festival, Edinburgh Fringe Festival, Edinburgh Jazz & Blues Festival, Byron Buskers Competition and Memmingen Folk Festival just to name a few. Tiny Feet have recently returned from Scotland where they were performing and working on new songs. Now settled in Mildura they continue to work on their music.

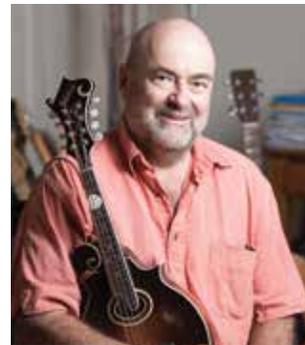

TWO IF BY SEA

Both beginning their musical adventures on the cello as children, Rachel Johnston and Trent Arkleysmith then took different paths that led Rachel to the world stage of classical music and found Trent on the street- fortunately as an award-winning Street Arts performer and musician in the international circus scene. Two If By Sea gathers together some favourite melodic souvenirs from their musical and geographical travels, drawing on the rich folk music traditions of Scandinavia, Bluegrass, Klezmer and the Celts to present a collection of harmonies that have already delighted audiences around Australia and across the seas.

WILLIAM ALEXANDER

Crooning troubadour and old time folk singer, William Alexander (the kid from Bourke), brings back the songs of hillbilly and country musics greatest figures as well as his own songs of the new world and all its trials and tragedies.

JAMES RIGBY

James Rigby is a highly respected singing facilitator, sought-after Australia-wide for his warm, inviting style and exceptional skills in getting a group of people singing, laughing, and making gorgeous harmony in minutes.

James runs a number of choirs enabling people with disabilities or mental health histories, worked regularly in local prisons, and has worked extensively with children in schools facilitating song writing to reflect perspective, life experience and a sense of place.

He has a huge repertoire of songs to share and specialise in arranging contemporary Australian songs of depth and meaning, for choirs.
